France is grateful for the confidence shown him proud of Australia and technological excellence which its companies have demonstrated in this high level competition. This new success will create jobs and development in France and Australia.

The French President Hollande has asked the Defence Minister to visit Australia to quickly start the accompaniment of this exceptional industrial program in its scale and scope. He thanked Australia for its choice and congratulate all those who contributed to take this decision. Elysee

AUSTRALIA CHOSEN FRANCE FOR A HUGE OCEANIC SUBMARINE PROGRAM-----

"I congratulate all those who participated in the preparation of the French proposal in response to the call for tenders Australia for its important oceanic submarine program. The industrials, especially DCNS, and state services were mobilized in an exemplary manner to promote the French offer. It is a new illustration of the ability of our country to persuade and win in the most technologically advanced sectors. For France and Australia, cooperation on 50 years opens a new page of our strategic relations, which are already exceptional quality and rooted in the long term. Our close in terms of values, strategic and global interests, and geographically, through the neighborhood of our Pacific territories, are further strengthened by this new joint project in the field of defense." [?] Jean Marc Ayrault, French Minister of Foreign Affairs, declared. French Diplomacy
